ORIENTATION MEETING TO LAUNCH
HIGH SCHOOL FINE ARTS CAMP
AT U OF MONTANA AUG. 4

MISSOULA--

Preparations are under way at the University of Montana for the arrival of more than 200 students who will study a variety of the fine arts subjects at the Montana High School Fine Arts Camp Aug. 4-15.

Most of the students are expected to arrive Sunday (Aug.3). Boys will be housed in Duniway Hall. Girls will stay at Knowles Hall on campus.

The youths, including high school students and high school and eighth-grade graduates, are scheduled to attend an orientation meeting at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in the Music Recital Hall where they will be addressed by UM President Robert T. Pantzer.

They will be the guests Sunday of the UM Masquer Summer Theater at the final stage performance of "The Apple Tree."

Courses during the camp starting Monday include art, band, chorus, ballet, modern dance, drama, orchestra and piano workshop.

Students also will attend evening faculty recitals and will participate in field trips and dramatic and musical performances during the two-week camp.

Fine arts campers will study under the UM School of Fine Arts faculty and visiting instructors. Among the guest artists will be Zaven Melikian, assistant concertmaster of the San Francisco Symphony and the San Francisco Opera Orchestras, and Walter Green, principal bassoonist for the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra and the San Francisco Opera Orchestra.

A third week of art studies under the title of the "Montana High School Artists' Camp," also sponsored by UM, will run Aug. 18-22. Participants for the artists' camp will be chosen from the music and art divisions of the fine arts camp.

George D. Lewis, associate professor of music at UM, is director of the Montana High School Fine Arts Camp.
